BEWARE OF TYPHOID

The Board of Health strongly advises the citizens of Honolulu not to drink city water unless boiled—as you know such water is flat, lifeless and tasteless. Drink Tan San, a delicious mineral water from the Takaradzuka district of Japan—a water that excites the appetite and stimulates the nutritive functions. Tan San eliminates from the problem of life the ailments attributable to the liver and kidneys. Don't take no for an answer. Insist that your dealer handle it for you. Tan San is the best and cheapest mineral water in Honolulu.

CONSTITUTION BARS PROHIBITION.

Editor Advertiser: Kindly permit us to say, that High License and Local Option are all right, and we will stand by them (while we are no politician), to the end of the chapter. But, my father, who was one of the Electors (Mr. Woolley), from Massachusetts, when the first Harrison was elected, told us all, that Prohibition was contrary to the Constitution of the United States; and, we never intend to forget his words of sage wisdom. We may be allowed to add further, and not seem ill-timed, we trust (in God we trust), that we were born and bred in a gentleman's family and subject, strictly, to temperance principles.—Editor Times.

BONINE AND HOLMES GATHER MUCH DATA

When Burton Holmes and R. K. Bonine get together with a moving picture machine there is bound to be something doing. Holmes has traveled all over the world; so has Bonine, and their business is to bring every section of the universe to the door of the men and women of other parts of the earth.

Both make pictures and Holmes tells about the country he has gone through. If the people of Honolulu could get them together on the same platform, Bonine with his perfect pictures and Holmes with fluency of speech to tell of the things he has seen, they would have the treat of their lives. But two such good men do not meet in public at the same time, often.

Bonine is making pictures of what he sees here and he will show them on the screen before he goes away. He is going down among the treasures of his boxes and bringing to light such pictures as he believes will please the eye of a critical Honolulu public and he will throw them on the screen next Thursday night at the Opera House. The tickets for the entertainment are on sale at Wall, Nichols at 25, 50 and 75 cents. The show will be worth more than the highest price charged.

Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox has made a conquest of Honolulu during her few weeks in the city. She sailed for her home on Saturday taking with her pleasant memories of Hawaii and leaving behind a large host of new made but true friends. During her stay she was extensively entertained, the largest affair arranged in her honor being the reception given on Thursday evening in the rooms of the Kiloana Art League. Here a program of her poetical works was rendered by members of the league, concluding with a beautiful poetical play, "Love versus Cupid," in which Mrs. Humphris assumed the leading role. The gifted words of the poetess took on added beauty as read by Mrs. Humphris, who never appeared to better advantage than on the tiny stage of the Kiloanas. Her acting was exquisite, inspired to some extent possibly by the appreciative audience that packed the auditorium and showed their sense of her talent by the applause that punctuated the rendering of the play.

Before the program a reception was held in the library, at which the hundreds present were presented to the guest of honor. Here, afterwards, refreshments were served, those presiding over the tables being Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith and Mrs. A. F. Judd.

Sheriff and Mrs. C. P. Iaukea are at present at Kailua, Hawaii, where they will spend some weeks. The Sheriff has been in poor health for some time and has been advised to try the Kona climate by his physician.

An event that attracted the presence of a large number of well-known people during the week was the laying of the cornerstone of the new High School building, which is to be known hereafter as the McKinley High School. Governor Frear, Governor Cleghorn and Judge Dole were on the speakers' stand, together with most of the leading educationists of the city.
